POETRY.

WHAT HAST THOU DONE?

What hast thou done to show thy love,
To Him who left His throne above;
His glorious throne in yonder sky,
And came to earth for thee to die?
Tell me, my soul!

What hast thou done in all these years,
Since Christ, in love, dispelled thy fears,
And in their place gave peace of mind,
And access to His throne to find?
Tell me, my soul!

Hast thou the world renounced entire;
And for its praise felt no desire?
From every folly turned away,
To seek for joys that last always?
Tell me, my soul!

Whene'er a brother in his need,
Appealed to thee to clothe or feed;
Did'st thou with generous soul reply,
And for Christ's sake, thyself deny?
Tell me, my soul!

Hast thou e'er dried the widow's tear?
Or sought the orphan's path to cheer?
Hast thou e'er raised the fallen up,
And bidden him once more to hope?
Tell me, my soul!

Or hast thou lived in selfish ease,
Seeking alone THYSELF to please,
Forgetful that thy God would claim
Thy service, if thou bare His name?
Tell me, my soul!

Forget not, soul, that by and by,
A reckoning comes in yonder sky,
When Christ, as Judge, will ask of thee.
"O soul! WHAT HAST THOU DONE FOR ME?"
Remember, soul!

SPARKLING
CATAWBA SPRINGS,
CATAWBA COUNTY, N. C.

THIS CELEBRATED WATERING PLACE, formerly called the North Carolina White Sulphur Springs, will be open for visitors . . Tuesday, the first day of June next.

BEING SITUATED in the Northwestern part of the State, in a country remarkable for its beauty and healthfulness—these, together with the virtue of the waters, make it one of the most desirable watering places to be found.

THE MINERAL WATERS OF THESE SPRINGS

Are the White and Blue Sulphur and Chalybeate or Iron, and they possess all the finest qualities of these waters, and are sovereign remedies for all diseases of the liver, bowels, stomach and kidneys, eruptions of the skin, scrofula, weakness, debility, dyspepsia, rheumatism, &c., &c.

THE PROPRIETOR having spent a large amount in additional buildings and improvements generally, these Springs are now in a fine condition, rooms large and pleasant, and good cottages containing from two to six rooms each, well arranged for either large or small families.

GOOD TEN PIN ALLEYS, BILLIARD TABLES

And other Amusements

FINE BATH HOUSES,

For Pool, Plunge or Shower Bath, Sulphur Bath, Hot or Cold.

A GOOD BAND OF MUSIC

Will be at the Springs the entire season, and a good Physician permanently located for the benefit of invalids, who will have every attention.

Having secured the services of Mr. J. N. CARTER, of Virginia, who has had much experience and stands high as a Hotel keeper, visitors may rest assured that my table will be supplied with the best the market can afford, and everything done that will add to their pleasure and comfort.

The cars on the Western North Carolina Rail Road will leave Salisbury for Hickory Station, the Springs' depot, every morning, (Sundays excepted) in connection with the North Carolina Rail Road, avoiding stoppage or delay at Salisbury, and arrive at Hickory Station in time for breakfast, where good hacks will be in readiness to take passengers over a beautiful, well-shaded road to the Springs—a distance of six miles.

As an inducement for families and parties to spend two months or more, I have concluded to put board down at the following low rates:

PIANO-FORTES.

The last new addition to our different styles is attracting the admiration of both critic and populace. We mention specially, some of the claims of this new Piano. Believing the exterior should be as beautiful to the eye as melody to the ear, we have paid great attention to getting them up in a style that is conceded by all who have seen them to be the handsomest Piano-Forte made. They are an entirely new style, with four round corners, heavily carved legs and lyre, base richly moulded, and contains our latest improved new style and action. The tone is melodious, and its adaptability to passages of every shade of expression, from the softest murmur, the Crescendo, and the FF, gives to perfection every advantage of the Concert grand. PARADE ON THE FIFTH.

On yesterday, we heard the "ear-piercing fife and spirit stirring drum," and on looking out saw a banner with the mystic letters "U. L. A.," floating to the breeze, and behind it marched with solemn tread about fifty of "Afric's hapless sons." Last year the occasion was seized upon to make a great display, and the streets were crowded and the procession immense. All that has now passed away, and the negroes have learned better sense, as was evinced by the meagre display yesterday.

Has the negro ever asked himself the question, Why he should celebrate the Fourth of July? The colonial Congress was composed of slave-holders, the Declaration of Independence was drafted by a slave-holder, the army that made it good was commanded by a slave-holder, and the Government, established by it, recognized slavery and continued to do so until every principle on which it was founded was destroyed.

The negro ought to have a day to celebrate, and that day should be either the one on which South Carolina seceded, or the one on which Mr. Lincoln issued his proclamation.

A great deal has been said about the article which appeared in the TIMES on this subject, and one subscriber withdrew his name and several more have entered theirs on this account. We are for harmony and peace, and prefer a strong government to anarchy, and will go as far as any honorable man to restore confidence to the country, but cannot do a wrong even to accomplish so great a blessing.

We cannot see why even the Northern people celebrate the Fourth. If we desired contention and revolution, no better way could be devised than to revive this celebration and to dilate in burning words on the wrongs of the colonies, and the bravery, heroic suffering and gallant achievements of our ancestors. Tell the people that trial by jury is the birthright of the Anglo-Saxon, that taxation and representation must go together, and that the imposing of the one and the denying of the other is the grossest tyranny; that for these reasons our glorious ancestors shook from the British Crown its brightest gem. Get their feelings up to fever heat, their passions roused by painting the despotism of George III, and some adroit Anthony will say, "Here is the parchment, 'tis his will"—Virginia to-day is deprived of representation in the National Congress, and yet the tax-gatherers swarm like locusts in every nook and corner of her fair domain. Tell them, to-day Courts-marshal decide the fate of the citizens of Texas and Mississippi, and ask them to worship the "best government in the world," and curse the tyranny of the British King. Now this is sheer nonsense or rank treason. We are for peace and order, and having taken the oath of allegiance to the government, will do nothing that looks like disloyalty, and any man who is capable of arriving at a logical conclusion must see that the celebration of the Fourth on principle is treason to the government, and hence our people very wisely and honorably determined to have nothing to do with it.

The negroes do not understand the question, and their celebrating the day is a meaningless parade.

A DUEL BY REBELS NEAR BALTIMORE.—An affair of honor occurred yesterday about 7½ P. M. near Cold Spring, on the York road, between two young men, formerly officers in the Confederate army, assisted by seconds—all the parties concerned being young married men of Baltimore.—The meeting was conducted according to the strict requirements of the "Code," and arose from a dispute about the behaviour of certain Confederate troops during the war, one party asserting that the troops in question behaved badly, and the lie passed between them. The weapons used were Derringer pistols—distance, ten paces. Two shots were exchanged and on the second fire both parties were grazed, but neither wounded.—Both parties desired another shot, but the seconds interfered and prevented it, and so the matter ended.—Bal. Sun.

Facts About the Japanese.

THEIR AGRICULTURAL ARTS, AND LANGUAGE.

The farming of the Japanese, like that of the Chinese, is conducted with skill and success. From Americans they have not much the learn upon this subject, except to save labor, by using better implements and machines. Animals and plows are not much used in cultivating the soil, and foreigners who have brought plows to the country, find it very difficult to introduce and sell them. The land is mainly cultivated by manual labor. The instrument chiefly used is a hoe of peculiar construction. It is some fifteen or sixteen inches long, by five or six broad, and made sharp and thin. Being fastenbed to the handle, at an acute angle, it can be drawn or driven into the light porous soil to a considerable depth.

Wheat and other small grains are sown in drills sufficiently far apart to admit of cultivation with the hoe. The Japanese understand the necessity of using fertilizers freely, better than some of our own farmers, and generally manure their wheat three times between sowing and harvest. This mode of cultivation succeeds well, giving a large yield. Rice is extensively raised, is a chief article of diet, and is the product in which the land rent is chiefly paid. The farmers pay one-fourth to one-half their rice crops as rent to their landlords. Indian corn is not much used by the natives, but being in some demand among the foreigners, is cultivated to a limited extent.

Dr. Hepburn regards the fruits generally as inferior to those of our own country. A species of persimmon furnishes a very superior and lucious fruit. The tree resembles in its bark, and general appearance, that of the same name with which we are familiar. But the fruit is as large as an apple, can be eaten with a spoon, and ripens without frost.

The Japanese are very superior mechanics. Their joiners can successfully imitate any article of furnature, if they have a pattern, but their work is often frail, and easily broken when used. Their carpenters can build an excellent house upon an American plan, but they work slowly. Owing to this fact, and the loss of time at meals, and in smoking, house building is not cheaper there than here, though wages are lower. They use tools, and do many things exactly the reverse of our own. They write and read their books from right to left instead of from left to right.

In erecting their own houses, they construct the roof first instead of last. The workmen pulls the plane to him, instead of pushing it from him, and makes his saw cut when drawing it towards him, instead of driving it from him. The Japanese make the roofs of their houses of very heavy timbers, much larger than the posts that support them. The roofs are finsshed and fitted to the floor and supports before the houses are raised. The object in having the top heavier than the lower portions of the house is to render the structure more steady and to guard against earthquakes. The latter are very common on the island of Nipthon, often numbering two a month, and dwellings built after the manner described, do not feel the shocks so much as those constructed after American models.

The language of the Japanese is exceedingly simple and easy of acquisition. When spoken, is soft and musical. The written language is not alphabetical, but syllabic. Forty-seven syllables, represented by distinct characters, constitute its elements. They have about the same vowel and consonant. They have about the same vowel sound that we do, and the vowels do not vary in sound like ours. When a person has learned the forty-seven syllables, and the characters by which they are represented, he has mastered the elements of the language. They are so readily acquired, that the children often learn to read in a few days, and education is general among males and famales. The women are fond of story books, and are often seen reading them in their own tongue. The language is written from right to left, and the Japanese are very expert in the use of pen and pencil. The chief difficulty encountered by a foreigner in requiring and using the language, is found in the fact that there are classes of words belonging to different orders of society, and used by individuals according to their rank in life. For instance the term employed by a superior, in making a request of an inferior, is totally unlike the one the inferior would have to use in addressing for the same purpose one of higher rank. The same is true of words used for other purposes, and denoting various things. In speaking properly, therefore, it is necessary not only to understand the terms of the language, but to know something of the social status of the individual addressed. The Japanese, however, regard the Chinese language and literature as superior to their own, and many of them are disposed to treat their native tongue with contempt.—Christian Observer.

Washington Letter.

[Special correspondence of the Baltimore Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, July 2.—Of course, the speech delivered last night by Ex-President Johnson has been unfairly reported by the Washington press. There is now no newspaper printed here which pretends to be Democratic, and the Chronicle, Republican and Star may do as they please in such matters, without fear of exposure, except by impartial letter writers at this point. In this case, however, the game would not be worth the candle to anybody. It may be confessed that Mr. Johnson has not the learning of a Bacon, or the chaste eloquence of a Burke—that he is not always accurate or happy in his classical allusions—lugging them in sometimes by the ears, often misapplying them, and confounding the ancient celebrities with whom they are connected. But if he be not, in this respect, equal even to a Jefferson or a Madison, he can certainly compare favorably with a Taylor or a Grant.

It is further alleged that his current speechifying is in bad taste, considering the dignified position from which he has just descended. To this might well be interposed the example of John Quincy Adams, if such a precedent could be received as justifiable authority. But, pray, what "dignity" is now left to the office of President of the United States which any incumbent might justly regard as hampering him when divested of its robes, or even before, from doing whatever his fancy might suggest? I declare that it would be more reasonable to find fault with a respectable boss gambler, like Morrissey, for lowering his dignity by turning politician and spouting in Congress. Since the memorable year of 61 the Presidency has been less than a creditable calling, and Congress has taken every possible means of still further debasing it. All that is now left the Executive is the taking of the initial step in the divison of the spoils of the nation, and for merely exercising this function the present incumbent, unless he brings several hundred more manufactured rebels to the block, will be impeached and sent adrift. Fire away, then, Andy, and have no fears on the score of dignity!

The public will see, by the "sudden" departure of Minister Sickles to Madrid, that the Sumner faction has just as suddenly triumphed in the Cabinet. Had the Administration been decided upon its policy before the day before yesterday, this extraordinary haste would not have been necessary. The annexation of Cuba by purchase may now be considered certain if the Spanish Government, notwithstanding the remonstrances of England and France, can be induced to sell at any price. This is the phase I have all along predicted this extraordinary affair would assume. What Mr. Secretary Fish will esteem it his duty to do, under the circumstateces, has not transpired. He seems yet, however, to be wonderfully dazzled with the imaginary honors of Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Great Republic.

Whatever may become of this Cuban imbroglio, one thing is manifest—and hat is, that the leaders in this country of the Cuban cause" have been villainously sold by this double-dealing Administration, whether we succeed in buying the Island of the Spanish authorities or not. In any settlement of the question between Spain and the United States, the owners of the bonds issued by the Revolutionary Government must "be left out in the cold." Besides, it is out of the question that a single dollar advanced by them to newspapers in the Radical interest, which have since "gone back" upon them, will be returned. It is even believe that a majority of them will, with brazen impudence, deny the genuineness of their own receipts for the money.

HYDROPHOBIA CURED.—Franklin Dyer, a highly respectable and intelligent farmer of Galena, Kent County, Maryland, gives the following as a sure cure for the bite of a mad dog. As will be seen he has tested it with the most gratifying results:

Elecampane is a plant well known to most persons, and is to be found in many of our gardens. Immediately after being bitten, take one and a half ounces of the root of the plant—the green root is preferable, but the dried will answer, and may be found in our drug stores, and was used by me—slice or bruise, put into a pint of fresh milk, boil down to a half a pint, strain, and when cold drink it, fasting at least six hours afterward.

The next morning repeat the dose fasting, using two ounces of the root. On the third morning, take another dose, prepared as the last, and this will be sufficient. It is recommended that after each dose nothing be eaten for at least six hours.

I have a son that was bitten by a mad dog eighteen years ago, and four other children in the neighborhood were also bitten: they took the above dose, and are alive and well to this day. And I have known a number of others who were bitten and applied the same remedy.

It is supposed that the root contains a principle which, being taken up by the blood in its circulation, counteracts or neutralizes the deadly effects of the virus of hydrophobia.

I feel so much confidence in this simple remedy that I am willing you should give my name in connection with this statement.

RICHMOND, July 2.—The colored Conservative barbecue, which was ended by the accident, was attended by about 300 colored men, and a large number of whites. A large crowd had congregated at the gate of the bridge leading to the island, being kept off the bridge by the police—Col. Branch, managing the affair, while standing on the bridge, directed the police to admit the crowd, which being done, the weight broke the structure precipitating a number into the water, where Col. Branch, Policeman Kirkman and Robt. Ashby were caught in the falling timbers and killed. Seven more were wounded, two of whom will die.

Col. Branch's body was followed to his late residence by a procession of prominent citizens; and the police force in a body escorted Mr. Kirkman's remains home. Mr. Branch was one of the first business men of this city. There is a general gloom here in consequence of the calamity.

[ANOTHER DISPATCH.]

A barbecue given to the Walker colored men, took place to-day on Vauthal's Island, adjoining the city. About three o'clock the Chain Bridge leading to the Island was so crowded that it broke, carrying down about sixty persons. Col. James R. Branch, a prominent broker and Conservative candidate for the Senate, was instantly killed, as also was policeman Kirkman, who was striving to prevent the crowd from rushing on the bridge. Seven colored men are fatally injured.

New York.

NEW YORK, July 2.—The Cuban prisoners who were transferred to the "Catherine Whiting," it is expected will be released this evening. A majority are Cubans. Senor Alfera and Dr. Brasora have been lodged in Ludlow Street jail. It is thought Ryan and his men are now prisoners, as a revenue cutter has been sent to Gardner's Island with a fully armed crew and posse. The Marshal's report say they quarrelled among themselves and three were killed and several wounded in a free fight yesterday.

Fearful Discovery.—Are the Infernal Regions in Indiana.

Mr. A. Rabb, a farmer who resides about three miles west of the city, brought a strange story in on Saturday. Mr. R. has a son-in-law living on a farm about four miles from Lafayette, named Mr. Miller. Mr. M. has a German laborer who, in plowing over a corn field, struck the upper crust of something very much like the interal regions. A suffocating odor was first emitted, followed by a dense volume of smoke. According to the German's statement, the stench was several degrees above the flavor of the Illinois street gutter. A sheet of flame soon burst from this terrible volcano, and a great conflagration was imminent for a time, but the flames were finally subdued by a few shovelfuls of earth tossed in the mouth of the crater. The lava thrown out looked very much like Castile soap—only it was not so highly perfumed. On the contrary, it was exceedingly offensive. It ignites easily, and burns as freely as brimstone.

The German was badly frightened, and after viewing the scene in utter bewilderment for a time, ejaculated: "Vel dat ish h—ll!" We understand that Professor Cox will examine the ground, and if it should prove to be an entrance to the infernal regions, he will send for Parson Brownlow to look further into it. The people of Lafayette are greatly alarmed, and already it is said that a roaring noise can be heard underneath that doomed city. We await further developments with intense anxiety. Many persons may think this a hoax, but it is not. Mr. Rabb doesn't look like a man who would deceive a whole community about as trifling a thing as the discovery of hell in Indiana.—[Indianapolis Sentinel, 28th.

The tomb over the remains of ex-President Buchanan has been completed, and is now erecting. It is very unpretentious, but is elegant in its simplicity. The material is Italian marble, resting on a base of New Hampshire granite. The inscription was written by Mr. Buchanan himself.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Conclusive Evidence in favor of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

W. H. Reese, a leading druggist in Monticello, Ill., in a letter of June 6, 1868, writes to this effect: 'Having sold Hostetter's Bitters for the past four years, I cannot but speak of the article as being the best tonic and appetizer extant. During the ague season of 1865—6 I could not keep a sufficient stock on hand to supply my customers. In fact your Bitters was as staple as quinine. I learn that physicians prescribe it all over the western country. Indeed, a great many families think they are not safe without your invaluable tonic."

J. K. Witherspoon, Esq., a magistrate of Kershaw county, S. C. states, under date April 13, 1868, that he has used the Bitters constantly in his own family for the previous two years. He first tried the preparation when suffering from exhaustion produced by a severe attack of fever. Before the first bottle was finished he experienced a remarkable change for the better. He had tried brandy at the outset, but found that did him more harm than good. In one month from the time he commenced using the Bitters his health, strength and appetite were restored. He had recommended the article to others in like circumstances, and never known it to fail, and had found it a perfect specific for chills and fever.

Mr. Samuel Young, of Clarion, Pa., under date April 6, 1868, certifies that he was completely cured of "one of the most distressing attacks of dyspepsia that ever afflicted any mortal," by three bottles of the Bitters, after "various other remedies had proved powerless." Restored to perfect health, he thanks "that excellent preparation for the result."

Dr. G. M. Spencer, of Bush Creek, Perry Co., Ala., writing thence Feb. 8, 1868, says: "I have used your Stomach Bitters for several years in my practice, and find them superior to most of the Bitters now prescribed by the profession generally."

PAIN KILLER.

WE beg leave to call the attention of the public to this long celebrated and unrivaled

FAMILY MEDICINE.

The PAIN KILLER is a purely vegetable compound, and while it is a most efficient remedy for Pain, it is a perfectly safe medicine even in the most unskilfull hands.

FOR SUMMER COMPLAINT

Or any other form of bowel disease in children or adults, it is an almost certain cure, and has without doubt been more successful in curing the various kinds of CHOLERA.

Than any other known remedy, or even the most skilful physician. In India, Africa and China, where this dreadful disease is ever more or less prevalent, the PAIN KILLER is considered by the natives, as well as European residents in those climates,

A SURE REMEDY.

Rapidity of Sensation.

If a needle be stuck into one of the fingers, the sensory fibres take the impression through the nerve and the posterior root to the spinal cord and thence to the brain. The command goes out to "draw the finger away." The mandate travels down the spinal cord to the anterior root and thence through the motor fibres of the nerve to the muscles, which immediately act, and the finger is at once removed. All this takes place with great rapidity, but yet with nothing like the celerity once imagined. The researches of Helmholtz, a distinguished German physiologist, have shown with great exactitude the rate of speed with which the nervous fluid travels; and other observers, among whom Schelske deserves mention, have given a great deal of time and patience to this and kindred questions. As the result of the many deliberations, it was ascertained that the nervous fluid moves at the rate of 971 feet in a second. Now, electricity travels a speed exceeding 1,200,000,000 feet in a second, and light over 900,000,000. A shooting star moves a velocity of 200,000 feet in second, and the earth in its orbit round the sun, 100,000. A cannon ball has a mean velocity of 1,800 feet in a second: and eagle, 130; a locomotive, 95; and a race horse, 80. We thus preceive that the nervous fluid has no very remarkable rate of speed. A fact which, among many others, deserves to indicate its nonidentiny with electricity.

Professor Donders of Utrecht, has recently been making some interesting experiments in regard to the rapidity of thought, which is likewise interesting. By means of two instruments, which he calls the noematachograph and the noematachometer, he promises some important details. For the present, he announces that a simple idea requires the brain to act for .067 of a second for its elaboration. Doubtless the time required is not the same for all brains, and that by means of these instruments we may obtain definate indications relative to the mental calibre of our friends. What invaluable instruments they would be for nominating caucuses, for vestries, for trustees of colleges, for merchants in want of book-keepers; in short, for having appointments of any kind to make!

For the eye to receive an impression requires .077 of a second, and for the ear to appreciate a sound, .149 of a second are necessary. The eye, therefore, acts with nearly twice the rapidity of the ear.—Wm. A. Hammond, M. D., in the Galaxy.

DEAR SIR,—In your paper of the 8th instant, where you were pleased to draw attention to the business of the National Life Insurance Company of the United States of America, the figures got into wrong positions in stating the number of policies at 4,179, the correct numerals were there, but they should have been placed so as to read 4,791, that being the number of policies issued by the Company previous to May 1st. At this date (May 14) the number issued is 5,025, insuring $14,194,500.

Thanking you for your uniform courtesy, and for the candid manner in which you have written of the National, I remain, yours respectfully,

We desire to warn the dealers in, and consumers of snuff generally, that since the war, certain tobacco manufaaturers, being unable to find a market for their snuffs, felt themselves obliged to counterfeit the general appearance of our packages, and imitate our Trade Marks, so that a close inspection is necessary to detect the spurious article from the genuine, and others going so far as to assert that P. Lorillard's Snuff is no longer made."

In making this publication we desire to warn the public against the impositions practiced upon them, as they are the losers thereby. It will be found upon comparison that Lorillard's Snuff is "far ahead" of all others, being made of the best stock, after an original and secret process known only to ourselves, besides possessing great age, strength and pungency, and is warranted not to contain any dangerous or deleterious substances, which cannot be said of the many worthless articles put on sale by others. The best is the cheapest in the end. A circular will always be mailed on application. In ordering please specify if Salt Snuff (High Toast), or Fresh Snuff (Extra Scotch) is desired.

APPLETON'S JOURNAL

A WEEKLY PAPER,

Devoted to Literature, Science and Art.

Omitting ordinary news, and avoiding partisan advocacy, both political and sectarian, the JOURNAL will be devoted to general literature, to science, art, and education, and to the diffusion of valuable information upon subjects of public importance. It is intended to make use of all resources, original and selected, domestic and foreign, which can give interest and variety to its pages; and neither exertion nor expense will be spared to secure the aid of the best talent of the time. We abstain from the large professions and the parade of conspicuous names so common on these occasions, and, trusting to the intelligence of the people, shall be content to let the Journal speak for itself.

The department of literature will embrace:—

Fiction, in the form of both Serial Novels and short Stories;

Essays upon Literary and social Topics;

Sketches of Travel and Adventure;

Discussions upon Art, Books, and Kindred Themes;

Papers upon all the various subjects that pertain to the pursuits and Recreations of the People, whether of Town or Country; and Poems by our Foremost Poets.

Illustrations will form an important feature in the plan of the JOURNAL. Nearly every number will be accompanied by either an Illustrated Supplement on some Popular Theme, a Steel Engraving in the best style of the Art, or a large Cartoon Engraved on Wood.

No. 1.—Contains a Cartoon of the Grand Drive in the Central Park, a Spirited and Animated Scene.

No. 2.—Contains an Eight-Page Supplement of Universal Life and Mining, with 10 Illustrations.

No. 3.—A Steel Engraving of Noon on the Seashore, after Painting by Kensett.

No. 4.—An Art Supplement, containing New York Illustrated with 18 Superb Illustrations.

No. 5.—A Superb Cartoon of the Levee at New Orleans.

Novelty, freshness, and continual change will be aimed at in this department. The illustration will usually be valuable as works of art; those on steel, and the Cartoons, consisting of views of American scenery, by our most distinguished painters, and illustrations of character and life, by our foremost draughtsmen. They will be printed with extra care on separate sheets, and may be either bound in the volume at the close of the year, or framed to hang upon the wall. The JOURNAL, in this feature, will be unlike any other.

ROCKBRIDGE ALUM SPRINGS, VA.,

OPEN MAY 15th.

This favorite and celebrated summer resort is now in complete order for the reception of guests.—Some important improvements have been added to the buildings since the establishment passed into the hands of the present proprietor, and it is his purpose to keep it in a style not surpassed any where in Virginia.

The remarkable medicinal and curative power of the water is well known to the medical profession and to the springs going public. As an

ALTERATIVE, A DIFFUSIVE STIMULANT, AND TONIC.

There is no known mineral water equal to it. In all anoemic conditions of the system, and broken down states of the constitution, loss of appetite, and general nervous prostration, its powers and virtue as a restorative may be safely pronounced to be without a known rival among the mineral waters of the world. They are ESPECIALLY INDICATED in the whole class as ailments peculiar to the female constitution.

The Proprietor will have provided for the Lawn and Ball Room a first-class BAND OF MUSIC, and in general, all the sources of amusement and recreation, usually found at our best summe resorts, will be at the command of the guests at Rockbridge Alum.

The place is within 11 to 13 hours of Richmond, Washington, Baltimore and Lynchburg, by rail, ALL IN DAYLIGHT. Passengers leave the cars of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad at Goshen Depot, and new and elegant stage coaches, passing rapidly over a smooth and level road at only eight miles, set down the visitors at the Springs to tea.

The Rockbridge Water, put up in GLASS, containing ALL its medicinal qualities can be had at the well-known Drug houses of CHEERING SUCCESS.

LARGE DIVIDEND OF INSURANCE.

The Piedmont Life Insurance Company, of Virginia, has

DECLARED A DIVIDEND OF

FORTY PER CENT.

on its Life Policies, which have paid two annual premiums, and the same is available on such policies at next renewal to absorb loans, or reduce cash payments.

The dividend could have safely been larger, but with the

PRUDENCE AND CAUTION

which has ever guided this company, it has deemed it proper to hold a surplus beyond the reserve fund.

The company is now only in the eighteenth month of its active operation—yet

HAS ISSUED 3,000 POLICIES

THE BALTIMORE

PARLOR HEATERS,

COOKING STOVES,

COOKING RANGES,

HOT-AIR FURNACES, &c.

S. B. SEXTON'S CELEBRATED

PATENT BALTIMORE PARLOR HEATERS AND GAS BURNERS,

for Anthracite or Bituminous coal, have been in successful operation for the last ten years, and have proved to be the best Fire-place Heaters manufactured and put in operation. They are getting to be generally used, often in the place of furnaces, for heating the lower and upper rooms in dwellings and offices. Two or three Stoves heating the largest dwellings, and besides, are quite ORNAMENTAL and ILLUMINATING, having all the beauty and cheerfulness of an open grate fire, but are more ECONOMCAL, CLEANER, and RADIATING A LARGER AMOUNT OF HEAT. We can refer to thousands of families who have them in use.

We manufacture our own COOKING STOVES, and we guarantee them to be equal to any sold for baking and cooking. We have Stoves to take in long wood and with large ovens, and are superior Stoves for baking. We are getting out some new patterns of Cooking Stoves, that will burn Bituminous coal, hard coal, or wood. They will have a beautiful finish, and will stand among the No. 1 Cook Stoves. Our Cooking Stoves are Baltimore made, and we guarantee the plates. Our Cooking Ranges are pronounced the best and cheapest in the market—Baking of all kinds can be done in our Ranges as quickly and equally as well as in a Brick oven. We will manufacture S. B. SEXTON'S new patent Hot-Air Furnaces, warranted to burn from 20 to 70 hours with once filling.

Thankful to our friends and the public for their past favors, we solicit a continuance of their patronage.
